

Privacy policy

OpASHA recognizes and respects the privacy of our online visitors.

Your privacy is important to us.

OpASHA only collects personal information that website visitors choose to share with us when signing up to receive e-newsletters, make charitable contributions, or apply for jobs. Any information collected in this website is used solely by OpASHA for internal purposes. OpASHA does not sell contact lists or personal user information to third parties. In specific cases, OpASHA may share personally identifiable information with third parties when the person submitting the information actively authorizes us to share it or we are required to by law.

If you wish to review personal information we may have on file, request corrections to mail and email addresses, or change permissions regarding sharing information with third parties, please contact info@opasha.org.

We care about the safety and security of your online donation. We use a secure encrypted donation service, which can send and receive private information across the public Internet. Every credit card donation is encrypted using the Secure Sockets Layer (SSL) specification before it is sent from the individual's computer over the Internet.
